ORRINE FOR DRINKING MEN

We are in earnest when we ask you to give Orrine a trial. You have nothing to risk and everything to gain, for your money will be returned if after a trial you fail to get results from Orrine. This offer gives the wives and mothers of those who drink to excess an opportunity to try the Orrine treatment. It is a very simple treatment, can be given secretly, without publicity, or loss of time from business.

Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1, secret treatment; Orrine No. 2, the voluntary treatment. Costs only $1.00 a box. Ask us for booklet.

KNOCKED DOWN BY TAXI.

A. C. Sweet Ran in Front of Auto—
Had His Nose Fractured.

At the corner of Main and Railroad streets about 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening A. C. Sweet was injured as the result of running into the front of a taxi cab owned by Murphy Brothers and driven by John Killourey. Mr. Sweet was running down Main street and apparently did not see the machine coming out of Railroad street, and before the driver could avoid the accident the former was struck by the right front fender and thrown to the ground. He was picked up and taken to the office of Dr. O'Neill, where it was learned that he was suffering from a compound fracture of the nose. Later in the evening he was taken to his home. The driver of the car reported the accident to the police.

Brief Mention.

LaBrique-Clocher Wedding—One Hundred Tables Filled at St. Jean Society's Whist—Strawberries Picked Tuesday.

William Lasch has returned after a vacation spent in different cities. At St. Mary's church Monday morning at 7 o'clock Regina Clocher, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Clocher, and Wilfred LaBrique were united in marriage by Rev. J. V. E. Belanger. The witnesses were Moses LaBrique and Alcides Clocher. The bride wore a plum colored suit with hat to match. A delegation from the Children of Mary, of which the bride was a member, awaited the arrival of the bride couple at the church. As the party proceeded down the aisle the Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by the organist, Miss N. V. Milner. The bride was married within the chancel rail, and during the mass the society's medal was removed by the president, Miss Elsie Roy. At the offertory Millard's Ave Maria was sung by Mrs. R. J. Jodoin.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride on River avenue. The numerous handsome gifts included cut glass, silver, china, household furnishings and money. Mr. and Mrs. LaBrique left at 2:15 for a trip to include Montreal, Farnham and St. Hyacinthe, Canada, and Barre, Vt. On their return they will reside in the newly furnished home in Tatfield, where the groom is employed in the velvet mill.

Guests were present from Cascaconsett, Willimantic, Plainfield, Putnam, Tatfield and Baltic.

On Motor Outing.

Peter Despres, Henry Bellanger, P. Cardin and Peter Rabitaille left Wednesday morning for a motor trip to include Providence, New Bedford, Boston and Brockton. While in Brockton they will attend the fair.
